JANUARY 2026 NEWSLETTER

THE GOODNESS OF BEGINNING TOGETHER

While the Christian Calendar began weeks ago with the start of Advent, the cultural calendar begins in January. We speak to our community life with communion, and then the month is filled with wonderful ways that we can express our faith as servant-leaders, in community and around the sacraments.

After paying attention to the start of Epiphany and the role of leadership for our congregation, we will be following the lectionary passages in First Corinthians until Lent begins on Wednesday, February 18. We look forward to worshipping our Lord each Sunday as we listen for God's Word in many forms. Remember to check in with a Session member about worship if weather is of concern, and please only travel if you can do so safely.

A favorite tradition for the first Sunday of each year is to break the bread and pour the cup around our community table and then to receive our Epiphany Star, which will have a focus word on it to guide us through 2026. This practice is a nod to the star in Bethlehem that guided the Magi to meet Jesus, which is our text from Matthew's Gospel on January 4. We trust the Holy Spirit in each of our lives to give us the focal point we need to keep our eyes on Christ.

Deacon and Elder leadership also pass the baton and dream for the future a bit in January. The first Saturday of the year, January 3, is a leadership gathering from 9 am to noon, where both boards come together to connect, learn, and envision the possibilities for The Old Scotch Church. Then, we install and ordain our leadership on January 11 for their terms, recognizing again how blessed we are to have so many capable servant-leaders among us.

Our January 17-18 women's retreat is a great chance to connect with one another, to learn, to eat fabulous food, and to build community. I invite you to make space for that time, especially since we have invited women from Hillsboro Presbyterian Church to join us. For the men in our congregation, check in with each other that weekend to find ways to enjoy each other's company.

Finally, we have the gift of remembering our own baptisms as we share in the baptism of an adult who has recently started worshipping with us and would like to profess their faith and be baptized. We are privileged to share the Good News in word and actions so that others might see Jesus.

Here are our sermon texts and community life events as we begin 2026 together.

January 4	Matthew 2:1-12	Epiphany Stars and Communion
January 11	Acts 6:1-7	Ordination/Installation of Leadership
January 18	1 Corinthians 1:1-9	Women's Retreat Weekend
January 25	1 Corinthians 1:10-17	Remembering our Baptisms

Grace and Peace,

Jacqui Bullis

Epiphany

May the Epiphany remind us of the good news of Christ

Words of Thanks from Chris

My journey and call as Parish Associate has come to an end. I feel very blessed to have been able to serve the Old Scotch Church as a Commissioned/Certified Ruling Elder. I am beyond grateful for your faith in me in this role and for the many ways you walked beside me during this time. Your prayers, words of encouragement, and thank-yous made a huge difference and were always appreciated. Pastor Tracie has been a wonderful colleague in ministry and has provided many opportunities for me to stretch and grow in both faith and works. Above all I'm so thankful to have had the Holy Spirit walking beside me and with me on this journey. The cards were the BEST! I loved reading them. They will serve as a wonderful reminder of you all and my time as Parish Associate. Thank you, each and every one! The potluck was fabulous! I loved seeing all of you spend time with each other! The generous gift from the congregation ... oh, my! Thank you, thank you, thank you! Making memories is a definite plus. I'm not leaving! Tim and I will continue to worship here and I am transitioning to being the Outreach and Membership Elder for the next 3 years. I'm looking forward to meeting new folks and encouraging our community to get to know one another. I'm still good for a hug, if you need one; and, I will always, always pray for you! Blessings to each of you! Most gratefully, Chris Macfarlane
